

DoveBid(R) to Conduct Online Auction for Pfizer Japan

Monday, January 07, 2008 - 03:30pm

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--DoveBid, Inc., the leading global provider of capital asset auction and valuation services, announced today that it will conduct a series of biotech and pharmaceutical lab equipment sales via a featured online auction (FOA) for Pfizer Japan, Inc.'s laboratory located in Nagoya, Japan. Pfizer is a global leader in the development, production, marketing and sales of innovative healthcare products.

The first online auction is scheduled to be conducted January 30, 2008 at 4:00 p.m. PST and will end January 31, 2008 at 10:00 p.m. PST. On-site previews of these assets are by appointment only prior to the auction. Featured items in the first sale will include over 350 items of biotechnology laboratory and R&D equipment. Multiple on-line auctions for Pfizer Japan are scheduled up to May, 2008. Detailed preview information, asset catalog, and online bidding instructions are available at DoveBid's website <http://www.dovebid.com>.

"On-line auctions are very popular in the USA and it has started to prevail in the Japanese market. We are working hard to support our clients, not only in biotech and pharmaceutical industries, but also in other industries, to manage their surplus assets by leveraging our state-of-the-art on-line systems," stated Yusuke Uchiyama, Account Executive, DoveBid, Japan.

Participants may bid online, review detailed asset descriptions, equipment catalogs, and online bidding instructions at <http://www.dovebid.com/>.
