Pfizer Announces 2026 Shareholder Meeting Preliminary Results

Thursday, April 23, 2026 - 12:45pm

NEW YORK, April 23, 2026 – Pfizer Inc. (NYSE: PFE) today held its Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Preliminary results from the Annual Meeting indicate that the shareholders: reelected the company's 12 director nominees to one-year terms; ratified the selection of KPMG LLP as Pfizer's independent registered public accounting firm for the 2026 fiscal year; approved the Pfizer 2019 Stock Plan, as amended April 2026; and approved, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the company's named executive officers.

In other voting, shareholders did not approve the shareholder proposal.

"We thank all shareholders for their participation today and for their ongoing support. 2025 was a year in which we delivered on our financial commitments and executed with discipline across our enterprise. I'm confident that Pfizer is in a strong position as we strive for industry-leading growth by the end of the decade, continue to deliver for patients and create sustained shareholder value," stated Albert Bourla, Pfizer Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

The final results are subject to verification by the independent inspectors of election. The final results will be reported on a Current Report on Form 8-K to be filed by Pfizer with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in the next few days.

About Pfizer: Breakthroughs That Change Patients' Lives

Disclosure Notice: The information contained in this release is as of April 23, 2026. The Company assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements contained in this release as the result of new information or future events or developments.

This release contains forward-looking statements about Pfizer's strategy, prospects and actions to create shareholder value that involve substantial risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. Risks and uncertainties include, among other things, the uncertainties inherent in research and development, including the ability to meet anticipated clinical endpoints, commencement and/or completion dates for our clinical trials, regulatory submission dates, regulatory approval dates and/or launch dates, as well as the possibility of unfavorable new clinical data and further analyses of existing clinical data; risks associated with interim and preliminary data; the risk that clinical trial data are subject to differing interpretations and assessments by regulatory authorities; risks associated with our clinical development plans; whether regulatory authorities will be satisfied with the design of and results from our clinical studies; whether and when any drug applications, biologics license applications and/or emergency use authorization applications may be filed in any jurisdictions for any potential indication for Pfizer's product candidates; whether and when any such applications that may be pending or filed for any of Pfizer's product candidates may be approved by regulatory authorities, which will depend on myriad factors, including making a determination as to whether the product's benefits outweigh its known risks and determination of the product's efficacy and, if approved, whether any such product candidates will be commercially successful; decisions by regulatory authorities impacting labeling, manufacturing processes, safety and/or other matters that could affect the availability or commercial potential of Pfizer's product candidates, including development of products or therapies by other companies; manufacturing capabilities or capacity; uncertainties regarding the ability to obtain or maintain recommendations from vaccine technical committees and other public health authorities and uncertainties regarding the commercial impact of any such recommendations; risks related to the ability to realize the anticipated benefits of Pfizer's business development transactions, including the possibility that the expected benefits from such transactions will not be realized or will not be realized within the expected time period; the uncertainties inherent in business and financial planning, including, without limitation, risks related to Pfizer's business and prospects, adverse developments in Pfizer's markets, or adverse developments in the U.S. or global capital markets, credit markets, regulatory environment, trade policies or economies generally; the impact of COVID-19 on our business, operations and financial results; and competitive developments.

A further description of risks and uncertainties can be found in Pfizer's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025 and in its subsequent reports on Form 10-Q, including in the sections thereof captioned "Risk Factors" and "Forward-Looking Information and Factors That May Affect Future Results", as well as in its subsequent reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and available at www.sec.gov and www.pfizer.com.
